

Addition Spinner

Give students basic addition practice with a fun easy group activity. Cut out the activity wheel and glue it to a piece of foam board. Use a pushpin and a paper clip to create a spinner. Use a marker to write numbers on popsicle sticks. Place the popsicle sticks number side down in a cup. Instruct students to take turns drawing a stick, then spinning the spinner to find out the addition problem to solve.

